Statutory Notification (S.R.O.)

Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan

NOTIFICATION

Islamabad, the 27th February 2001

S.R.O. 131(I)/2001. – In exercise of the powers conferred by section 43(b) of the Securities & Exchange Commission of Pakistan Act, 1997 read with section 33 of the Securities and Exchange Ordinance, 1969 and in pursuance of section 32 of the said Ordinance, the Securities & Exchange Commission of Pakistan, with the approval of the Federal Government, hereby makes the following rules to regulate the business of venture capital companies and venture capital funds, namely:-

CHAPTER I PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and commencement.- (1) These rules may be called the Venture Capital Companies and Venture Capital Funds Rules, 2001.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.- In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, -

- (a) "Administrator" means a company or a person appointed by the Commission to manage the affairs of a venture capital company or venture capital fund, on cancellation of licence granted to the venture capital company or, as the case may be, venture capital fund under these rules;

- (b) "Commission" means the Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan;
- (c) "Form" means a form set out in the Schedule to these rules;
- (d) "venture capital company" means a company which is engaged in financing any venture project, through equity or other instruments whether convertible into equity or not and provides managerial or technical expertise to venture projects, or acts as a management company for management of venture capital fund;
- (e) "venture capital fund" means a company which is managed by a venture capital company and raises funds through private placement of equity and other securities, as specified in these rules and invests its resources in venture projects; and
- (f) "venture project" means a company, registered under the Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984), or a partnership, or a sole proprietorship, which is engaged in a business activity and has such characteristics as may be notified by the Commission, from time to time, to be treated as venture projects.

CHAPTER II

REGULATION OF THE BUSINESS OF VENTURE CAPITAL COMPANIES

3. Eligibility conditions for grant of licence to a venture capital company.- (1) A venture capital company shall not be granted licence unless it fulfills the following conditions, namely :-

- (a) it is incorporated as a public limited company under the Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984);
- (b) it is not engaged in any business other than that of investment in venture projects;
- (c) it has a minimum paid-up share capital of five million rupees subscribed by the promoters and by others through private placement;

- (d) it has certified that the chief executive of the venture capital company does not hold such office in any competing business;

Explanation.-The phrase “competing business” shall have the same meaning as defined in section 203 of the Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984).

- (e) it has certified that not more than twenty-five per cent of its directors are from the same family, including spouse, dependent lineal ascendants and descendants and dependent brothers and sisters ; and
- (f) it has appointed as its chief accounting officer a person who is a chartered accountant or cost and management accountant or a person having Master's Degree in Commerce or Business Administration from a university recognized by the Universities Grants Commission with at least five years experience in finance and accounting.

(2) The sponsors, directors, chief executive and chairman of the Board of Directors, fulfill the following conditions, namely: -

- (a) they have not been associated with any illegal banking business, deposit taking or financial dealings;
- (b) they and companies in which they are directors or hold ten per cent or more beneficial interest, have no over-due loans or installments, outstanding towards banks or other financial institutions or defaulted in the payment of taxes;
- (c) they have never been convicted of fraud or breach of trust or economic offense or of an offense involving moral turpitude or removed from service for misconduct;
- (d) they have neither been adjudged as insolvent or compounded with their creditors;
- (e) the promoters and directors of such company are, in the opinion of the Commission, persons of means and integrity and have special knowledge of matters which the company may have to deal with as a venture capital company; and

- (f) the proposed chief executive and at least one of the proposed sponsor directors have senior management level experience in industrial enterprises or the financial sector for at least five years.

13. Private placement.- A venture capital fund shall raise and receive monies for investment in venture projects through private placement of such securities as may be notified by the Commission, from time to time.

14. Placement memorandum.- A venture capital fund shall, before soliciting placement of its securities, file with the Commission a placement memorandum which shall inter alia give details of the terms subject to which monies are proposed to be raised from such placements.

CHAPTER IV

OTHER MATTERS PERTAINING TO REGULATION OF VENTURE CAPITAL COMPANIES AND VENTURE CAPITAL FUNDS

15. Enquiry.- The Commission may cause an enquiry to be made, by any person appointed in this behalf, into the affairs of any venture capital company or a venture capital fund, registered under these rules or any of its directors, managers and other officers of the venture capital company or the venture capital fund, as the case may be, and the provisions of section 21 and 22 of the Securities and Exchange Ordinance, 1969 (XVII of 1969), shall apply to such an enquiry.

16. Cancellation of licence.- (1) Where the Commission is of the opinion that a venture capital company or venture capital fund has contravened any provision, or has failed to comply with any requirement of any rule or direction made or given hereunder, the Commission may, if it considers necessary in the public interest so to do, by order in writing, cancel the licence of the venture capital company or venture capital fund as the case may be:

Provided that no such order shall be made except after giving the company an opportunity of being heard.

(2) Upon cancellation of the licence, the functions and carrying on the business of venture capital company or the venture capital fund shall cease and the Commission may move the Court for a winding up order in respect of the venture capital company or venture capital fund take such other action against the venture capital company or the venture capital fund, as the Commission may deem fit.

(3) Notwithstanding cancellation of licence under sub-rule (1), the directors, chief executive, chairman and other responsible officer of the venture capital company or venture capital fund shall not be absolved of any civil and criminal liability under these rules, the Securities and Exchange Ordinance, 1969 (XVII of 1969), or any other law for the time being in force.

(4) Where the licence of the venture capital company has been cancelled under sub-rule (1), the Commission may, by order in writing, appoint a person as the Administrator or another venture capital company to manage the affairs of the venture capital company whose licence has been cancelled and the funds so managed by such venture capital company subject to such terms and conditions as may be specified in the order.

(5) The management of the affairs of the venture capital company or the venture capital fund, shall vest in the Administrator on and from the date of the Administrator's appointment until a liquidator is appointed by the Court.

(6) On an application by another venture capital company the Commission may, if so satisfied that any venture capital company and venture capital fund can be managed and that such an action would be in public interest, may grant a licence to such an applicant for the management of venture capital company which has been entrusted to the Administrator along with the venture capital fund, if any.

17. Filing of annual report with the Commission.- (1) A copy of the annual report together with copies of the balance sheet, profit and loss account and the auditors' report of the venture capital company and all the venture capital funds being managed by such companies shall be filed with the Commission within four months of the close of the accounting period. The annual report shall inter alia include the results of each investment in venture projects in abridged form.

(2) A copy of the report of the directors to the share holders in respect of the first half of the year together with copies of balance sheet, profit and loss account of the venture capital company and funds managed by the venture capital companies shall be furnished to the Commission within two months of the close of the relevant accounting period.
