

Position Title	Assistant Director (Senior WordPress Developer)
No of positions	1
Location	Islamabad
Employment Type	Regular
Duties and Responsibilities	• Support all aspects of web application development (designing, coding, testing, debugging, and maintaining projects). • Responsible for development, operational support, upgrade, performance tuning, customization and implementation of WordPress themes, plugins, site integration, code reviews and security updates. • Evaluates, tests and reviews new or modified software programs to determine if program performs according to design requirements. • Research & development activity for proof of concepts. • Help with the overall website architecture, detect program errors and define corrective code. • Writes documentation to describe program requirements, structure, evaluation, testing and correction.
Qualification	• Masters / Bachelor's degree (equivalent to 16 years of education) in Computer Science / Computer Engineering, Information Technology, Software Engineering or other related disciplines from HEC recognized reputable university / institute.
Post Qualification Experience	• Minimum 03 years of relevant post qualification experience in web development using WordPress for both front-end and backed-end development.
Age Limit	• Maximum age should not exceed 35 years on the last date of submission of application. Note: Applicants who have at least 03 years' experience working with a regulator, will be given age relaxation of 05 years.
Specialized Skills	• Must have practical knowledge of both back-end and front-end development, especially proven work experience as a WordPress developer and • A deep understanding of CMS especially WordPress, including its core functionalities, themes, plugins, and best practices, is crucial. You should be able to navigate the WordPress dashboard with ease and have a solid grasp of its architecture. • A thorough understanding of web development best practices, including documentation, site architecture, 2FA security and other critical functions. • Creating the website architecture, Knowledge of a variety of WordPress plugins and/or the ability to learn how to research and implement them into a project • Designing and managing the website back-end including database and server integration. • Proficient in PHP and understanding of its core concepts. • Proficiency of PHP, MySQL, CSS, JavaScript, HTML5, jQuery, bootstrap and hosting experience on Apache http and Ngnix Server on Ubuntu OS. • Conducting website performance test and troubleshooting content issues and understand website architecture and aesthetics. • Monitoring the performance of the live website, SEO Expertise. • Experience working with debugging tools such as Xdebug, Chrome Inspector and Firebug. • Must have Restful API's Knowledge and integration experience. • Team player, ability and willingness to motivate and support others. • Strong analytical skills with excellent interpersonal and communication skills.