(4) Any person holding shares in an existing central depository on the date of commencement of these regulations, shall comply with requirements of sub-regulations (2) and (3) above within a time period of three years from the date of commencement of these regulations.]

9. Composition of [board] of directors and related matters. - (1) The board of directors of a central depository shall have following categories of directors:

(a) Independent directors;
(b) Shareholder directors; and
(c) Chief executive officer.

Explanation:- For the purposes of this clause the term "independent director" means a director who is not connected or does not have any other relationship, whether pecuniary or otherwise, with the central depository, its associated companies, subsidiaries, holding company or directors. The test of independence principally emanates from the fact whether such person can be reasonably perceived as being able to exercise independent business judgment without being subservient to any form of conflict of interest:

Provided that without prejudice to the generality of this explanation no director shall be considered independent if one or more of the following circumstances exist:

(a) he/she has been an employee of the central depository, any of its subsidiaries or holding company within the last three years;
(b) he/she is or has been the chief executive officer of subsidiaries, associated company, associated undertaking or holding company of a central depository in the last three years;
(c) he/she has, or has had within the last three years, a material business relationship with the central depository either directly, or indirectly as a partner, substantial shareholder or director of a body that has such a relationship with the central depository;
(d) he/she has received remuneration in the three years preceding his/her appointment as a director or receives additional remuneration, excluding retirement benefits from the applicant apart from a director’s fee or has participated in the central depository’s share option or a performance related pay scheme;
(e) he/she is a close relative of the central depository’s promoters, directors or
