7. I have heard the Authorized Representative of the Respondent and reviewed the available record, which reveals that the Respondent has submitted application to PSX for relinquishment/surrendering of its TREC. In response to said application, PSX vide notice dated June 01, 2016, in terms of clause 4.9 of the PSX Rule Book has sought objection/claims, if any, from TRECs holders or related clients against the Respondent, within 90 days of the Notice. Since, the Respondent has opted to exit from business of the brokerage and necessary proceedings in this regard are already underway, therefore, the matter is not being thrust anymore. Thus, the proceedings initiated through SCN are concluded here without imposing any penalty and the matter stands closed.

8. This order is issued without prejudice to any other action that the Commission may initiate against the Respondent in accordance with law on matters subsequently investigated or otherwise brought to the knowledge of the Commission.
