CASE No.1570/2021

BEFORE THE ADJUDICATING OFFICER

ORDER UNDER SECTION 123-A READ WITH SECTION 479 OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 2017

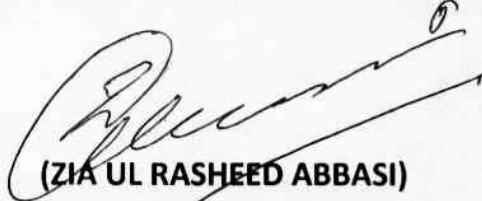

IN THE MATTER OF M/S. HASCOL TERMINAL LIMITED

Present: Kashif Raza Shah (CFO)

Final date of hearing: 25-May-2021

1. This Order shall dispose of the proceedings initiated under Section-123-A of the Companies Act, 2017 ("The Act"), vide Show Cause Notice dated 12-April-2021 ["the Notice"].
2. The facts of the case are that the Company was required to submit to the registrar concerned a declaration of compliance, on specified Form-45 in pursuance of sub-section-2 of section 123-A of the Companies Act, 2017 (the "Act") r/w Regulation 19A(5) of the Companies (General Provisions and Forms) Regulations, 2018 (the "Regulations").
3. Sub-Section (2) of Section 123-A of the Act provides "every company shall in such form and manner as may be specified, maintain a register of its ultimate beneficial owners and shall timely record their accurate and updated particulars, including any change therein, and provide a declaration to this effect to the registrar and where any government is a member of a company such particulars of the relevant government shall entered in the register of ultimate beneficial owners in the specified manner" whereas Regulation 19A(5) of the Regulations provides that, "Every company required to maintain a register of ultimate beneficial owners shall, within fifteen days from the receipt of declaration received under sub-regulation (2) or (3), and thereafter along with its annual return, submit to the registrar concerned a declaration of compliance in pursuance of sub-section (2) of section 123A of the Act, on the specified Form-45".
4. However, on examination of the record of the company maintained by the Registrar/SECP, it was revealed that the company failed to file Form-45 in accordance with the requirements of the aforesaid law/Regulations which attracts the penal provisions of sub-section-3(b) of section-123-A of the Act which provides that any contravention or default in complying with the requirement of Section-123-A shall be an offense liable the company to a penalty which may extend to ten million rupees.

5. Accordingly, taking cognizance of the matter, in exercise of the powers conferred by the Commission (SECP), vide S.R.O. 1356 (I) /2020 dated December 16th 2020, a Show Cause Notice dated 12-April-2021, was issued to the company and also served at the residential address of its Chief Executive, calling upon them to show cause in my office on 28-April-2021 and subsequently adjourned to 25-May-2021, as to why the penalty laid down supra should not be imposed.
6. On the aforesaid date of hearing, the company secretary appeared before me in person. While admitting the default, he stated that Section 123-A of the Act has recently been promulgated, i-e in August, 2020 followed by the relevant regulations, hence the compliance was overlooked and more particularly due to covid-19 pandemic situation. He further, submitted that the management is regretful for the negligence and now we are going to make good of the default immediately. He also assured that the management is committed to regularize all the irregularities and become a well compliant company as soon as possible. Moreover, no such default or violation will be repeated in future.
7. The submissions made by the authorized representative / officer of the company with regard to the subject default are not sustainable. It is the responsibility of the management of a company to ensure timely compliances of the provisions of law and rules/regulation in true letter and spirit. As such ignorance of law is no plea in the eyes of law. Notwithstanding, the facts and the circumstances narrated on behalf of the company do not warrant severe penalty against the company which may extent upto Rupees Ten Million, hence I am convinced to take a lenient view. Accordingly, only a token penalty amounting to Rs.2,00,000/- (Rupees two lacs only) is hereby imposed on the company in respect of non-compliance of the law/regulations ibid, in accordance with and in the specified manner thereof.
8. The management of the company is hereby directed to deposit the penalty amount immediately but not later than 15 days from the date of receipt of this order. Soon after the compliance is made and the amount of penalty is deposited with the registrar concerned, a copy of acknowledgment of the same be furnish to this office.
9. A copy of this order be placed on the record/file of the company for future reference and further appropriate action, if any, be taken by the dealing registrar accordingly.
