

PRESS RELEASE

Islamabad – 2 December 2005: The Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan (SEC) unveiled its new-look, revamped website today. This has been a soft launch of the website and the full and final website will become available from 1 January 2006. The website can be accessed at www.secp.gov.pk.

The new website is more informative and user friendly. Easier and focused navigation has been ensured through added features. The new website incorporates separate portals for all the departments of the SEC. Besides, information on each of the sectors under the SEC's purview and functional information would also be made available. The website also provides an online Name Reservation System that greatly facilitates companies seeking registration with SEC.

During the month of December 2005, the SEC would further improve upon the structure and contents of the website for its final launch by 1 January 2006. It would welcome feedback and comments of users during the period. It is hoped that the new website will go a long way towards providing easily accessible and user friendly online services.
