TERMS OF REFERENCE - INFLUENCER MANAGEMENT AGENCY

The Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan (SECP) is the Pakistan’s apex regulator of corporate and financial sector inter-alia the capital markets, the non-banking finance sector (mutual funds, leasing companies, venture capital, housing finance, and investment banks) and insurance business. Investor education is a statutory obligation of SECP and the SECP recognizes the strategic importance of investor education to create financial literacy for protection of investors’ rights. SECP has therefore, adopted investor education as a key strategy to enhance investor protection, promote investor confidence and foster investor engagement in financial planning and decision-making.

Accordingly, the SECP has launched an Investor Education Program with the name of “Jamapunji” to equip the general public with skills and knowledge to make informed financial decisions and manage their money wisely. The main objectives of Jamapunji are to:

- i. Educate and create awareness amongst general public about saving and investment including financial planning and budgeting
- ii. Increase awareness about the financial markets (capital market, non-banking financial and insurance sectors) and how to go about making an investment
- iii. Educate target groups about different financial products; risks involved; rights and responsibilities and investor protection services
- iv. Build investor confidence in capital market, non-banking financial and insurance sectors.

Under the Jamapunji, education is being imparted both through digital means and physical interventions via seminars and investor days. SECP has launched the Jamapunji portal; www.jamapunji.pk - a digital hub for investor education material and is conducting financial literacy and investor education seminars in Universities and other institutions.

For sustainable investor awareness strategy that change the investment behavior of our masses in the long run, the SECP plans to expand the scope of the Jamapunji program across Pakistan through hiring services of a professional Influencer Management Agency to complement implementation of investor education plan.

In an increasingly digital world, the need for financial literacy and digital fraud awareness has never been more urgent. These topics play a crucial role in equipping individuals to protect themselves from emerging financial risks and empowering them to make informed decisions in their personal finances. As digital platforms and financial services continue to grow in Pakistan, addressing these challenges has become central to creating a safer and more financially resilient society. SECP is currently focusing on two key areas where influencer/creator engagement can have significant impact:

- i. Financial Literacy: Equipping individuals with the knowledge to manage their finances effectively, including topics like budgeting, access to finance, opening and managing their bank accounts, savings, and investing.
- ii. Fraud Awareness: Educating the public on how to identify, avoid, and report fraud & scams.

Recognizing the power of social media influencers/creators to connect with a wide and diverse audience, SECP sees influencer-driven campaigns as an ideal vehicle to spread these important messages. Influencers have a unique ability to reach their followers with relatable, authentic content, making them invaluable partners in raising awareness on financial literacy and digital fraud protection. By partnering with influencers, SECP aims to create engaging, impactful content that can help millions of Pakistanis protect themselves from fraud and become more financially savvy.

This Request for Proposal (RFP) seeks an agency that will manage and coordinate influencer collaborations across multiple campaigns focused on these topics, for the duration of 01 year (which may be extended on same terms and conditions for mutually agreed period).
